Shodoshima is abound with places to see and recommended spots to visit.
Being full of nature, having a long history, local cuisine and customs, there is a charm here that can't be experienced anywhere else.
You'll fall in love with Shodoshima.

❶Group Statue for Peace
This is a bronze statue of children and their teacher, Oishi Sensei, who appeared in the famous novel by the local writer, Sakae Tsuboi. This statue was built in 1956 as an eternal wish for peace and happiness.
In front of Tonosho Port

❷Angel Road
The sandbar connecting Shodoshima's mainland to Yoshima, one of the small islands off the shore, is called "Angel Road". The sandbar appears only twice a day during low tide and visitors can walk on it. This is one of the popular places where one's wish is realized. If you cross the sandbar hand in hand with someone precious to you, your wishes will come true and you will find happiness together.

❸The Remaining Stone's of Osaka Castle Memorial Park Michi no Eki
Stones which were extracted for the construction of Osaka Castle have been arranged as the center of attraction of this park, and in addition, there are other items on display such as information about the transportation process and old documents. It's a great place to learn about the stone culture of Shodoshima.

❹Choshikei-Land of the Monkeys
Mild temperament monkeys, which are fed here, group together and play in this natural animal park.
There is also a world monkey park which families can enjoy. In addition, there are scenic spots including the Onudehime Shrine, which enshrines the ancestors of Shodoshima, the Choshi waterfall, and the Sendakuho ridge.

❺Nakayama Terraced Rice Fields
There are about 800 rice fields on the side of this steep hill, which are irrigated with the famous "Yubune no Mizu" spring water, and these terraced rice fields are among the top 100 terraced rice fields of Japan. It is believed that it was built between the Nanboku-cho and Edo periods (14th to 17th century).

❻Shodoshima Furusatomura Michi no Eki, Umi no Eki
Here you can find a family pool, souvenir shop, auto camp site, lodging and fishing facilities and much more.
There are many ways to enjoy being in the rich natural environment here.

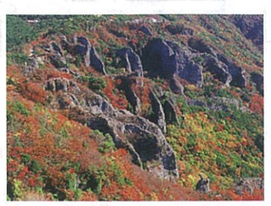
❼Shodoshima Hand-Stretched Somen Facility
Here you can do lots including observe the process for making somen, try your hand at hashiwake (separating the somen with chopsticks), or enjoy freshly made somen at the tasting corner.
There is also a souvenir shop with many famous products from Shodoshima.

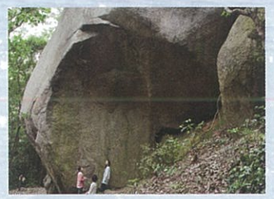
❽Seiganji Temple Cycads
Within the grounds of temple #31 of the 88 temple pilgrimage of Shodoshima, there is a giant cycad tree which is over 1000 years old. The tree is 7.5 meters tall and 8 meters in circumference and has countless branches stemming off the trunk. It is said to be number one in Japan for size and vitality. It was designated as a national natural monument in 1924.

❾Shodoshima Olive Park Michi no Eki
The olive tree surrounded park is filled with greats spots including a memorial hall, lodging facilities, and an herb garden. There are also hands-on experiences such as extracting olive oil and hand crafts. The contrast between the blue sea and the white Greek style windmill make this a popular photo spot.

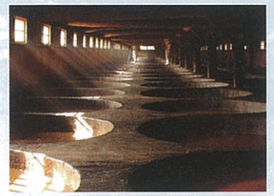
❿Utsukushi no Hara Plateau - Shihozashi View Point
Beautiful blooming flowers can be viewed every season on this plateau.
The view point located at an elevation of 777m is called the "point in all directions" view point because you can point in any direction with no visual obstructions.
On a clear day, you can see stunning panoramas all the way to the Seto Ohashi Bridge and the Naruto Ohashi Bridge.

⓫Kankakei Gorge
The 12 scenic locations in the front and the 8 locations in the rear on the hiking course are a must see, especially the ropeway that is passing between the cliffs reveals the beauty of the valley and the coast line and will leave you in awe.





⓬Osaka Castle Stone Quarry Ruins
There are a number of quarries remaining from long ago when stones for building Osaka Castle were being extracted from Shodoshima, which had a very active stone industry. In addition to a 350m path through the Tengu stone quarry, you can also see the legendary "Eight Stonemason Stone" which tragically crushed eight stone masons.



⓭Soy Sauce Village
Shodoshima's active soy sauce and tsukudani (seaweed boiled in soy sauce) industries produce a large amount of superior quality products for all of Japan.
Inside there is a factory which was built in the Meiji period, and this site adds a unique element to the townscape.
Tours and hands-on experiences are also possible at various locations.

Shodoshima 88 Temple Pilgrimage
"Shima-Shikoku" is the scale down version of the Shikoku Pilgrimage, visited by pilgrims not only from Shodoshima but also from all parts of the country. The temples can be found in some very beautiful locations, high up in the mountains, within stone's throw of seashore, and at the heart of local villages.
In fact, many of the temples are listed in the "Sanuki Hyakkei" (one hundred most beautiful scenes of Kagawa), and are popular with day tourists who wish to visit traditional old temples and enjoy peaceful quiet scenery with full of cherry trees.

⓮Twenty Four Eyes Eigamura
Sakae Tsuboi, the author of the novel Twenty Four Eyes, is the most famous of the many writers from Shodoshima. The beautiful and emotional story of a schoolmistress and her twelve pupils is a work appreciated by many people regardless of age and was made into a film of the same name on several different occasions.
This reconstructed old time village is a movie set located on the island's coast that was used in the filming of Twenty Four Eyes. Nostalgic air is reproduced well by a set of old furniture, well and Jizo (little stone statues) remain as they were.

⓯Sakae Tsuboi Literature Museum
This reproduction of a portion of Sakae Tsuboi's house was part of the studio set for the film, "Twenty Four Eyes." There are various items on display including her favorite furniture and various original manuscripts.

⓰Misaki no Bunkyojo
This branch school in the village of Tanoura appeared in the novel, "Twenty Four eyes." The school has been preserved since it closed in 1971 and is open to the public. In the school you can see desks, an organ and other school supplies that remain from that time.

⓱Literature Stone Monuments
Being a prosperous place for culture and art, Shodoshima has turned out a great number of authors and poets including Sakae Tuboi, who have all produced outstanding works which remain in this world. There have also been numerous visitors from outside of Shodoshima who have left their mark in various places. There are stone slabs containing literature and poems to places all over the island still remaining.

Artworks
The artworks created for the Setouchi International Art Festival are still remain at so many places in this island. Fusing of modern art forms into gentle scenery of the island creates unexpectedly new attraction and is tasteful.
