

Sightseeing Course

Kotohira 1-day course

Enjoy "Kompirasan" and surroundings

A

B

C

◎From Takamatsu Station depart 9:00 on JR Minami-kaze Relay, about 1 hour to Kotohira Station

◎From Kotoden Takamatsu Chikukou Station about 1 hour on Kotohira Line to Kotoden Kotohira Station

◎From Takamatsu Airport arrive approximately 9:00 from Tokyo, dep 9:25 on Takaku airport bus for approximately 40 minute ride to Hachiyou-mae

▶ 10:00

A Konpira Shrine

This shrine, commonly known as Kompirasan, has an extremely long stairway of 1368 steps. The main hall of the shrine (Hongu) is where the protective gods of agriculture, childbirth, health and maritime safety are worshipped. If you get tired on the stairs you can rest at the cafe Kamitsubaki.

Related Info : KOT-spot001, KAG-cafe002

Walking transt

▶ 12:00

B Konpira Grand Theater (Kanamaruz)

This is Japan's oldest existing theatre, also a National Treasure of Importance. Visitors can get a sense of Edo period theatre, with the billboard on which the names of the actors are written and the 'flower road' by which the actors enter and exit the stage.

Related Info : KOT-spot002

Walking transt

▶ 13:00

Koubaitei Maruchu Japanese Dining

If you are tired from walking, head to Maruchuu Japanese Dining located in the Hotel Koubaitei on the main road. Enjoy a buffet style Japanese menu featuring seasonal specialties. Rice cooked in a traditional Japanese kamado pot is a real treat.

Related Info : KAG-viki001

Walking transt

▶ 15:00

Udon-making at Nakano Udon School

Try your hand at making udon. The 'udon teachers' will show you how to do it, starting with the kneading of the dough. You will then roll out the dough with a special noodle roller, and then learn how to do 'foot kneading' and 'udon cutting'. In the end, you will boil the noodles and enjoy your handiwork.

Related Info : KAG-tour008

Walking transt

▶ 16:00

Kinryo-no-Sato

After seeing Japan's traditional sake brewing methods, you can taste many different types of sake in search for your favorite variety.

Related Info : KEN-good024

Walking transt

▶ 17:30

C Chicken-on-the-bone Tanakaya rest:

After fully enjoying the town of Kotohira, it is recommended to try out Kagawa's famous 'chicken-on-the-bone'. The firm parent chicken and soft young chicken meats are prepared with salt, pepper, garlic and other spice and cooked slowly on the bone at high temperatures for your culinary enjoyment.

Related Info : KAG-hone002

▶ 19:30

Overnight in Kotohira

Or depart for Takamatsu on JR Kotoden (20:30-21:00)