Introduction

This peninsula juts out into the Seto Inland Sea, at the northern most part of Sanuki city. The park has a total area of 100 ha, and there are various facilities clustered around the central grassy plaza. This is a leisure spot where you can experience ocean, mountains and wind, in a beautiful natural environment.

The Sanuki winery is the only wine-producing facility in the four prefectures of Kagawa, Tokushima, Ehime and Kochi. 'Sanuki Wine', the authentic Kagawa wine, is produced and sold here, and you can observe the production facilities. At the Sanuki Product Center, located next-door, you can taste and purchase wines, or go up to the second floor to the cafe and take in the Seto Inland Sea scenery.

There is an outdoor concert area called Theatron, that can accommodate up to 5,000 people. The stage is designed after the Parthenon. Since the site is on the tip of the peninsula, the views are superb.
