Introduction

The peninsula juts out sharply into the Seto Inland Sea in the western part of Kagawa Prefecture. Bounded on three sides by the ocean is Shiudeyama, located in the center of the peninsula. Shiudeyama is well known for its flowers, and you can take in the beauty of the cherry blossoms in April and the hydrangea in May-June. The view from the summit observation deck is lovely – especially as the sun sets over the ocean.

The Flower Park Urashima, a broad expanse of flowers that includes marguerite daisy, marigold, and cosmos, is also popular. The beauty of the marguerite daisies that bloom in May is extraordinary, and there is a flower picking event that is open to the public (paid).

The Shonai Peninsula is where Urashima Taro, the main character in the children's story bearing the same name, was born and raised. There are many places all over the island with names linked to the story.
